The 2010 Convention delegates adopted a new policy for the election of Synod President. That process was put into effect last year when nominations were accepted from all Congregations. Those had to be turned in by Feb. 20, 2013. Then on June 22 all the 2012 Convention delegates were provided a secure method of Electronic voting. As the results of that election the Rev. Dr. Matthew Harrison was elected by a majority of vote's to be the President-elect of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. This will be ratified at this year's convention.

Thanks to all that helped with the church workday. It was a great success.

Thank you so much for supporting our family. We have made it to Palo Alto, CA and are settling in nicely. The girls are all doing VBS this week and have started to make new friends. This leaves me with a couple of hours to myself as well, which have been quiet yet enjoyable. As for Chris, he is really enjoying his new job as Vicar. He has been keeping very busy doing calls, teaching VBS, and prepping for his first sermon. Thank you so much for your continued prayers! God Bless, The Suggitts, 1231 Middlefield Rd., Palo Alto, CA 94301
