The Eden Home 224-3929

To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

By the time you are reading this, I should be in Israel. If not, then we are probably wandering aimlessly lost in the Frankfurt Airport. Honestly, I have approached this journey with complete confidence that God will protect us and lead us safely to the Promised Land.

In the days leading up to this trip, I found myself being very excited, which was not unexpected, however my excitement was not for the reason you would anticipate. I was excited to return home, but not just because I would get to see my wife and daughters. I was excited to be able to share what I saw.

My dad told me that, when he returned from Israel, Bible class was never the same. He would read a passage and see in his mind the place where it happened. I am excited to have this experience. I am excited to share this experience.

The one regret I have is that the people who have their birthdays during the time I am gone will not receive any telephone greetings from me. I assure you that you are still in my prayers. On that note, I ask for your continual prayers for myself and all the travelers.

Have a blessed celebration of the Reformation, and I will see you for the Feast of All Saints.

In Christ,

Pastor Eden

Evening Ladies Aid

October has been a bit of a whirlwind, but we're surviving! The month kicked off with our meeting on the 6th. Donna and Suzanne Troxel hosted with scrumptious desserts that were enjoyed by all.

The meeting started off with a study/devotional from the 'Today's Light', followed by approval of the minutes from last month's meeting and the reading of the treasurer's report.

For unfinished business...the girls who attended the Sacajawea 'Beautiful Feet' retreat shared with the others about how wonderful the retreat was and that they would look forward to another one! The Fall Zone Rally attendees also shared what they took away from the rally as the most memorable. By far, the mission speaker from Madagascar was #1 on everyone's list!

Also, last minute details were addressed for the LWML Breakfast, which by the way, we are shouting out a very loud "THANK YOU" to all who attended. We had a full house and with your generous donations, our 4th quarter mission project recipients will also be saying thanks, as well! We still have two months that we'll be collecting mites to fund those projects. They are listed on the acrylic mite box in the narthex, which is where you can also dump your mite boxes or your change!

New business discussed...was finalizing our 'Movie Night' plans. If you missed it, we're sorry, because the movie, 'Fireproof', was outstanding and boy did we have fun! If you have never seen that movie, PLEASE, rent it. Your marriage will be glad you did!

Rounding out new business was voting on the dollar amounts to send to our third quarter mission projects, Camp Callahan and Wittenberg Campus Ministries and a committee was formed to iron out the details of the church social on Nov. 5th. Fellow LWML members, you'll be contacted very soon about what to bring.

Lastly, the fall Clarion was handed out to those who don't get one via email and Quarterlies issued to anyone who had not gotten the latest one. One very nice thank you note that we received from an attendee to the Sacajawea retreat was also read! Those are always wonderful to get.

The November 3rd meeting, hosted by Joann Reichert and Linda Wingerter, will get started at 6:30. The final details of the church social will be discussed as well as getting started with our Christmas party.

Hope to see you at a meeting soon to check us out! Our group is so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

If you would like more information about our Evening Ladies Aid Society, please contact any LWML member, Michele Clevenger at 217-224-7881 or m.l.clevenger@comcast.net or check out the LWML on the World Wide Web at www.lwmlcid.org or www.lwml.org.
