Merry Christmas & A Blessed New Year!

To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

Before my journey to Israel this Fall, I began making plans for this Advent Season. I like to be able to anticipate what is coming in the future. So I decided during our three Wednesday Advent services, we are going to travel to three places: Nazareth, Bethlehem, and Jerusalem. Of course, I decided this anticipating what I would say about each place. I had read Scripture corresponding to each site. I had studied the archaeology. The weeks leading up to our travel date were full of anticipation, and I was confident I knew what to expect. Yet, being there, I realized there was so much more. In the Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth, Wanda came up to me and said, "Can you believe we are here? This is where Jesus grew up." The reality of being there was so much better than the pictures.

I say this with the full understanding that studying the various places we would see during our weekly Thursday noon Bible classes was an awesome experience. They were so enjoyable. That, in itself, was tremendous. Yet, the reality was so much better than the pictures.

Advent is a time of waiting and anticipation for the celebration of the birth of our Lord and for Christ to return once again. We spend our time studying the history, reading the Word of God, worshiping, praying, and pondering the glory that is to come. What we experience here in our life in the church on earth is awesome, tremendous, and thoroughly enjoyable. Yet, the reality of what is to come will be so much better.

This Advent Season we wait in joyful anticipation. We read the Word of God. We worship. We study. We pray. I would like to be able to anticipate what the reality of life in the resurrection will be. The presence of God we experience here is so wonderful, yet all that we have ever seen of Him is in pictures. The reality of being in the presence of God will be so much better than the pictures.

In Christ,

Pastor Eden

Evening Ladies Aid

The November 3rd meeting kicked off with dessert being served up by Joann Reichert and Linda Wingerter. Joann also led us in a bible study entitled 'Heaven: A Five-Star Review' out of our Lutheran Women's Quarterly.

For unfinished business...final plans were set for the church soup supper on Nov. 5th. Many thanks to all who attended and enjoyed the fellowship of other Our Redeemer members. Arrangements were also made to wrap up the donations to Concordia seminary Food Bank. Lastly, Joann reported on LWML's tree for the Very, Merry Market.

New business discussed...were the details of our Christmas party on Dec. 2nd. Based on last year's fun, especially the 'White Elephant' gift exchange, can't wait to see what the creative minds of our members and their husbands have in store! Michele and Renee will be contacting all the LWML members with the final plans for the time and meal.

A signup sheet for the Advent dessert night was passed around. A motion was also made and carried for there to be a standard donation $ amount to be made to all of our mission projects rather than having a discussion each time we get ready to pay them. What a great idea and all were in favor.

Lastly, the Clarion and Quarterly were handed out to those who had not yet received the latest issues.

Events to finish out the year are the Christmas party on Dec. 2nd and our hosting of the Advent service on Dec. 14th with some very delicious desserts!

Hope to see you at a meeting soon to check us out! Our group is so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

Thrivent Choice Dollars has deposited over $4,500 in ORLC's account so far. We've had 74 of our 152 members take action to direct their Choice dollars to our church. If you have not called or gone on line to check on your choice dollars, please pick up an instruction card on the west Narthex table. Hopefully we can double the amount for next year. Thanks to all who have already taken action and gotten us the $4,500.

Seminary Student: There is a card and letter on the East Narthex table from our New Seminary Student, introducing himself & His family.
