To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

This is an exciting summer for our family at Our Redeemer. I am writing this with the sound of hammers and saws in the background. We have begun our renovation project in the Sunday School rooms. We have also begun updating our sound system in the sanctuary. You may have noticed the camera on the balcony railing. This, properly connected to a computer, will allow us to broadcast my sermons on the website. Our hope is that our homebound members will be able to stay more connected with the worship life of the church, and we pray that this is a way to reach out to those who are searching for the message of salvation in Christ.

The goal of this entire project is evangelism. We seek to enhance our Sunday School program and share Christ with more children (and their parents). We seek to reach out to our community and beyond through a presence on the Internet (last year I had a request from someone from North Carolina to reprint something I had written).

Our Redeemer has a long history of mission and evangelism. It is seen in the work of the Holy Spirit in our midst over the years, beginning with a few dozen gathering at Durst's Dairy. It is seen in our ongoing investment in the education of our children at St. James Lutheran School. It is seen in our commitment to over sea missions in Europe, Turkey, Africa, and New Guinea.

We are blessed to have a long standing relationship with the Federwitz family, as Our Redeemer has supported their work of Bible translation for many years. On July 15, we will be blessed to welcome Jonathan and Carrie Federwitz and their four children. They are missionaries in Papua New Guinea working with Lutheran Bible Translators. There will be separate presentations for adults and children following the worship service. Please come and participate. I am sure adults and children would be interested in what it is like to live in the jungle. We are privileged to be a part of the ministry of Christ's Church as His Gospel is shared locally and throughout the world.

It is an exciting time for the family of Our Redeemer. I look forward to participating with you in the sharing of God's Word as we continue our work within Christ's Church.

In Christ,

Pastor Eden

Evening Ladies Aid

What a beautiful evening we had for our carry-in picnic meeting on June 14th at Wavering Park! It was such a big hit that we will probably make it an annual event.

Pastor and Malinda were our hosts serving up tasty hamburgers and hotdogs with the other members each contributing a special dish to round out our delicious meal.

Joann Reichert (Vice-President) started the business portion of our meeting with a devotion from the book, 'God is in the Small Stuff', entitled 'Giving God Time'. The devotion, based on Psalms 37:7, was a wonderful reminder for us about God's perfect timing with everything in our life...to wait patiently for Him. A much needed reminder, especially since we would rather run things on our timing much too often! ☺

For unfinished business....The shut-ins list is still in the process of being updated with Pastor adding a couple of names to the list.

Rosie, Sharon, Suzanne and Michele shared some of their favorite highlights from the District Convention in Rock Island earlier this month. It was held at our out-going CID President's home church, Immanuel Lutheran, which is very new and very beautiful!

The highlight shared most by everyone was the inspiring Julia Wehrenberg from Normal, IL, who has been serving as a missionary with LCMS World Missions in South Africa for a couple of years. What a blessing she must have been to the many orphans and the rural village of Shongweni! Julia spoke of the many blessings God provided to the ministry while serving there.

New business discussed...The Friendship Tea invitation from St. Paul's in Pittsfield was announced for June 23rd and that whoever was interested in going to please contact Sharon Reinberg. Our movie night coming up in August was also discussed. Watch for details!

The Federwitz' will be the recipients of one of our third quarter mission projects. Can't wait for them to come to town! A local project will be finalized at the next meeting after more information is gathered.

We closed the meeting with a mites devotion from Mary Morse and the Lord's Prayer.

Next month our meeting is a surprise location (TBA) fun event hosted by Michele.

Any of you ladies who are thinking you might like to be a part of our group; we hope to see you at a meeting soon to check us out! Our group is so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

If you would like more information about our Evening Ladies Aid Society, please contact any LWML member, Michele Clevenger at 217-224-7881 or m.l.clevenger@comcast.net or check out the LWML on the World Wide Web at www.lwmlcid.org or www.lwml.org.
