To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

As I look at the June calendar, I am reminded of a conversation we had at our Coach House Bible study not too long ago. The subject that came up was the joy of serving. I made the statement that I feel sorry for those who do not engage in any volunteer or service activities. They are missing out on one of the more fulfilling, satisfying, joyous parts of life.

At the beginning and the end of the month, there will be ample opportunity to serve Christ and His Church. First, of course, is Vacation Bible School beginning June 3rd. We already have 45 volunteers signed up. If you have not been able to help in the past, I encourage you to come and participate (even if you can only be here one or two evenings). And if you are not able to come in the evenings, please stop by during the week to see the decorations and all the effort that our VBS crew has done.

The other volunteer opportunity is our Church Clean-Up Day on Saturday June 29. Beginning at 8:00 AM, we are working inside and outside. Come when you can. There is overgrown landscaping that needs to be addressed. Bring whatever tools you think would be helpful for trimming and/or removing trees and shrubs. There is definitely one tree that needs to go and all the shrubs need to get smaller.

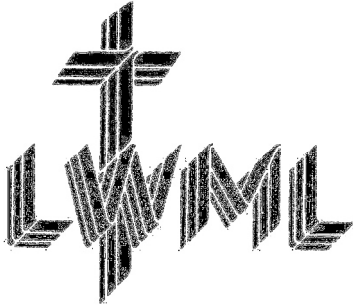

We are also cleaning out all the closets, getting rid of any unnecessary stuff, and reorganizing how we use our space. One of the major projects is cleaning out the library. If you would like to take any of the books, please take whatever you would like. On June 29, any that are left will be removed from the church. Please do not take the videos. The Sunday School will still be using them.

We chose June 29th for this work day because it was the only Saturday I had free and I definitely wanted to be here. Unfortunately, it conflicts with the LWML Convention. The ladies who will be at the convention expressed disappointment that they will be gone, because they will miss out on the joy of serving. I promise that I will find something for them to do when they get back. But seriously, there is joy in coming together and serving – especially when we get to serve the Lord. I have never had a bad day in God's House.

Come and join us. Don't miss out.

In Christ,
Pastor Eden

LWML

The highlight of our May 2nd monthly meeting was the announcement that both our Central Illinois District (CID) and National Mission Goals were met and surpassed! The CID collected over $75,000 in mites for the past year and the National 2011 – 2013 Mission Goal of $1.825 million made it to $1,834,269.27! The LWML has been truly blessed these past two years!

Sharon Reinberg and Ruth Essington were our hostesses for the evening with Michele Clevenger leading a Bible Study from our Lutheran Women's Quarterly to get the meeting started. Business reports were heard from Suzanne Troxel and Renee Benedetto.

For unfinished business... Renee reported on our Lenten dessert nights. (Thanks to all who enjoyed dessert with us and are helping us to meet our mission project goals!) A date of August 1st was finalized for the next Bible Study we will be hosting. Highlights from the Central Illinois District convention were also shared by those that attended. If you ever get a chance to attend Pastor Whitby's services or hear him speak, don't miss it! He is one of the Pastoral Counselors for the National LWML.

New business discussed... The May Fete date, hosted by St. John's Mary and Martha Guild, was announced and attended by some of our members. It was a most enjoyable night and the food was wonderful! Our movie night in August was set for the 9th. Watch the Sunday to Sunday for more details on this and the Bible Study. Discussion was also started for LWML Sunday.

Please note that in this Newsletter and the Sunday to Sunday is the announcement for our June Picnic with the date, place and what you are to bring. We are looking forward to a great evening of fun with maybe a little business...very little!

The National Convention in Pittsburgh is fast approaching (June 27th – 30th) and those of us attending can't wait to share in the excitement of it all!

Any of you ladies who are thinking you might like to be a part of our group; we hope to see you at a meeting soon to check us out! Our group is so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

If you would like more information about our Evening Ladies Aid Society, please contact any LWML member, Michele Clevenger at 217-224-7881 or m.l.clevenger@comcast.net or check out the LWML on the World Wide Web at www.lwmlcid.org or www.lwml.org.

LCMS Responds to Oklahoma Tornado

In the wake of the monstrous tornado that struck Moore, Okla., and severe storms that affected other areas of the Midwest yesterday, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) asks for prayers and financial gifts to help those affected by the disaster.

The Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Harrison, president of the LCMS, and the Rev. John Fale, associate executive director of the LCMS' Mercy Operations Group, have been in contact with LCMS Oklahoma District President Rev. Barrie E. Henke to begin assessing needs in Moore and plan the church's long-term disaster response plan.

"The needs are going to be huge," Fale said. "We don't know yet the extent of what they will be, but, by the grace of God, we will be there to respond with the love and mercy of Christ to help those affected by the tornado to regain some sense of normalcy."

The EF4 tornado destroyed parts of Moore and killed at least 24 people. Before striking Moore, the tornado touched down in Newcastle, Okla., about 10 miles away.

"We know there are many people who wish to participate in bringing tangible relief to those who suffer from disasters," Fale added. "Those who wish to volunteer with response efforts in Oklahoma are asked to wait for the assessment of the damages and the needs. In the meantime, the best way to support our Synod's relief effort is by contributing to the LCMS' general disaster fund."

To financially support the LCMS relief effort:

- Give a donation online at <https://www.lcms.org/givenow/disaster>
- Mail checks made payable to "The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod" (with a memo line or note designating "LCMS Disaster Relief" to:
