To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

In the coming weeks, any parent or grandparent with school-age children will be experiencing a change in their schedule. Some of the “back-to-school” advertisements strive for a humorous look at this change with frowning children accompanied by joyous parents as school resumes. This is the stereotypical view of modern family life. However, in reality, most parents will miss having the kids around during the day, and most kids will look forward to getting back into the school routine – even the learning part.

I know that most of the youth who would read this would publicly reject that notion (especially if their friends were near). However, the truth is that children appreciate structure. They also enjoy learning. It gives them a sense of accomplishment. Learning is empowering. Why do you think that children ask so many questions? They do not like being ignorant. They want to know things and grow in their understanding of the world around them. Certainly, there is no age or level of learning that allows anyone to have all the answers, but having knowledge helps to take away fear of the unknown. Gaining knowledge and finding answers to your questions takes a lifetime of learning, and learning doesn't end when you put your diploma on the wall.

The same is true of the knowledge of God, yet it is different. Learning about our Creator and Redeemer, as God is revealed through His Word and the work of the Holy Spirit, is empowering. It takes away fear of the unknown. Yet, a baptized infant already has everything needed for salvation. Having been washed clean of all sin, the fullness of God's grace is upon that child. There is no age or level of knowledge acquired that makes you more ready to receive God's grace, just like there is no “age of accountability” when suddenly you are accountable for you sins (as if Baptism was unnecessary prior to that age).

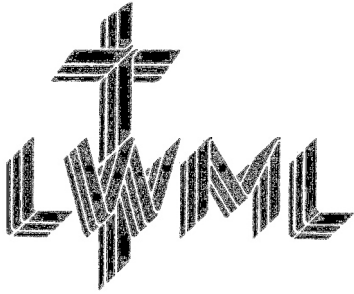

Our place in this world is simple: we were born in the total corruption of the sin of Adam. We are saved by grace through faith, it is a gift from God, apart from our works [Eph. 2:8-9]. The message is so simple, yet we have a million questions about God and the meaning of life. We are children in need of learning. Certainly, there is no point in this life when everything about the complexity of God will be fully understandable. He is incomprehensible. Yet, we strive to know Him through a lifetime of learning because knowledge of Him takes away fear of the unknown – even the fear of death.

As Sunday School and Bible classes resume at Our Redeemer, I encourage you to make use of the opportunities for you and your children to grow in your knowledge and love of the Lord. Sunday August 25 is when we will return to our regular schedule with the Divine Service at 8:00 and 10:15 with Sunday School and Adult Bible class in between. If regular participation in Bible class has not been part of your schedule, I encourage you to start a new routine. Join in the lifetime of learning which began at your Baptism.

In Christ,

Pastor Eden

LWML

No official business meetings are ever held in July. Instead of celebrating every member's birthday throughout the year, a couple of members act as hostesses for the month and plan a birthday celebration for everyone!

The location is always kept a secret until the night of the event! It always proves to be a wonderful time and sometimes it's even an adventure...this year was no exception!

Rosie Meyer and JoAnn Reichert hosted our birthday celebration at Windsong Acres just north of Camp Point. What a beautiful place! They have a very large working show barn and a smaller barn that's been converted into an art studio for the owner that is also rented out for small parties and gatherings.

They have koi and goldfish ponds, which Rosie's granddaughter, Willa, enjoyed the most, since she got to feed them! If you want to know more about Windsong Acres, they are on Facebook and the internet at www.shellyrasche.com. Almost forgot...our meal was wonderful and after we sang Happy Birthday to ourselves, we got to enjoy some very delicious birthday cake!

Our next LWML event is a Bible Study on August 1st in the fellowship hall. The study is from our Quarterly entitled, Faces of the Savior. During this study, we will look at the various "faces" of our Savior and the significance of those "faces" for each of us believers. Please join us at 7pm.

We are, also, hosting another movie night on August 9th at 6:30pm. It's a great time to fellowship with each other and enjoy a great movie curled up on the big sofa, if you like! Please bring a snack to share!

Any of you ladies who are thinking you might like to be a part of our group; we hope to see you at a meeting soon to check us out! We are so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

Lutheran Hour Ministries is looking for a Radio Program Producer to assure high quality programming for the Latino Market. Job description is posted in the Secretary's office window.

PLuS "Back to School" Party @ Sheridan 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, August 18th.

Organist Matthew Gerhardt will present a concert at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 4107 21st Ave. Moline, on Wednesday July 31 at 7:00 p.m. He will be joined by his wife, Rachel, a violinist. Matthew has just completed a year of guest studies at the University for Church Music in Herford, Germany, near Hannover. He has previously studied organ at St. Olaf College and Concordia University Wisconsin. He was the first prize winner of last year's Immanuel Organ Competition in Evanston, Illinois, and has recently been named a semi-finalist at the International Organ Competition in Haarlem, Netherlands. This September, he begins the Artist's Diploma program at the Oberlin Conservatory.

The 2010 Convention delegates adopted a new policy for the election of Synod President. That process was put into effect last year when nominations were accepted from all Congregations. Those had to be turned in by Feb. 20, 2013. Then on June 22 all the 2012 Convention delegates were provided a secure method of Electronic voting. As the results of that election the Rev. Dr. Matthew Harrison was elected by a majority of vote's to be the President-elect of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. This will be ratified at this year's convention.

LCMS Responds to Oklahoma Tornado

In the wake of the monstrous tornado that struck Moore, Okla., and severe storms that affected other areas of the Midwest yesterday, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) asks for prayers and financial gifts to help those affected by the disaster.

The Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Harrison, president of the LCMS, and the Rev. John Fale, associate executive director of the LCMS' Mercy Operations Group, have been in contact with LCMS Oklahoma District President Rev. Barrie E. Henke to begin assessing needs in Moore and plan the church's long-term disaster response plan.

“The needs are going to be huge,” Fale said. “We don't know yet the extent of what they will be, but, by the grace of God, we will be there to respond with the love and mercy of Christ to help those affected by the tornado to regain some sense of normalcy.”

The EF4 tornado destroyed parts of Moore and killed at least 24 people. Before striking Moore, the tornado touched down in Newcastle, Okla., about 10 miles away.

“We know there are many people who wish to participate in bringing tangible relief to those who suffer from disasters,” Fale added. “Those who wish to volunteer with response efforts in Oklahoma are asked to wait for the assessment of the damages and the needs. In the meantime, the best way to support our Synod's relief effort is by contributing to the LCMS' general disaster fund.”

To financially support the LCMS relief effort:

- Give a donation online at <https://www.lcms.org/givenow/disaster>
- Mail checks made payable to “The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod” (with a memo line or note designating “LCMS Disaster Relief” to: The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod P.O. Box 66861 St. Louis, MO 63166-6861
