To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

The myth of summer around the church is that activities slow down and we “power down” for a few months. Looking at the June calendar, there is plenty happening (although the activities are not ones that we regularly find happening during the rest of the year). The first event is the LWML Picnic on June 5th. Especially if you are not familiar with the ongoing work of these dedicated women, come and join us at 6:00 in Wavering Park.

The biggest event of June is Vacation Bible School beginning June 9th. Because of school running late, we are starting our summer schedule one week later. We already have many volunteers and children signed up. If you have not been able to help in the past, I encourage you to come and participate (even if you can only be here one or two evenings). And if you are not able to come in the evenings, please stop by during the week to see the decorations and all the effort that our VBS crew has done.

Another volunteer opportunity is our Church Clean-Up Day on Saturday June 14. Beginning at 8:00 AM, we are working inside and outside. Come when you can. Bring whatever tools you think would be helpful for trimming and/or removing shrubs. Also, we are landscaping some areas where grass refuses to grow. We hope to be finished close to lunch time, and pizza will be provided.

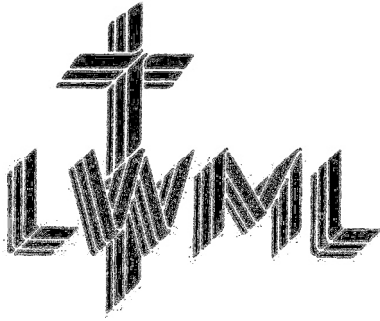

June also marks the beginning of our First Communion classes. I wrote about this in detail in the March newsletter. On Sunday June, 15, 22, and 29, as we begin our summer schedule with only one service on Sunday at 9:00AM, there will be Sunday School after church. Pastor Eden will be conducting classes focusing on Baptism and Holy Communion those three weeks. Everyone is invited to join. I believe that multigenerational gatherings are important in the life of the church. We all can use a refresher on the grace of Baptism and miraculous nature of the body and blood of Christ.

Don't miss out on the joy of fellowship, the joy of learning, the joy of serving, or the joy of worshiping our Lord and Savior.

In Christ,

Pastor Eden

LWML

Finally, beautiful warm weather as this newsletter is being written! Hallelujah!

Our hostesses, Ruth Hall and Renee Benedetto, treated us this month with delicious desserts and festive décor!

Unfinished business...we discussed past events as to how they went and what we could improve upon. The girls who attended the District Convention in Effingham shared highlights and final plans were made for the baby shower.

New business discussed...Our mission projects for the first quarter were discussed along with Sharon Reinberg volunteering to get information for us about helping out at St. John's Food pantry this second quarter. Malinda also gave us an update on the Picnic Social meeting planned for next month. Check the Sunday to Sunday for the location. Everyone is to bring a covered dish with the meeting beginning at 6pm.

Any of you ladies who are thinking you might like to be a part of our group; we hope to see you at a meeting soon to check us out! We are so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

If you would like more information about our Evening Ladies Aid Society, please contact any LWML member, Michele Clevenger at 217-224-7881 or m.l.clevenger@comcast.net or check out the LWML on the World Wide Web at www.lwmlcid.org or www.lwml.org.

Senior Choir ends their choir season this week, but we will have a "Summer Choir" again in June, July & August. This group will meet at 8:45 a.m. before the 9:00 a.m. service to rehearse a hymn from LSB to be sung in unison in the service that morning. Anyone interested in singing (including our teens) is invited to join the choir members in this group. The first time the Summer Choir sings will be June 22.

Help Building New Cabins. Camp CILCA will be building 2 new cabins on May 30 & 31. If you willing and able to help, please call Pastor Dave Bueltmann (217-691-1252) and let him know when you could help and if you need overnight housing. We could also use help finishing on June 6 & 7.

Summer Camps at Camp CILCA have openings for all weeks. Register on line (www.cilca.org) or get a registration form at the church office.

Nurses and Pastors Needed at Camp CILCA this summer to be Nurse of the week and Pastor of the week. Contact Pastor Dave Bueltmann if you would be interested (pastordave@bueltmann.org or 217-691-1252).

Christopher Troxel's vicarage assignment is to Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Edmond, OK about 30 miles north of Oklahoma City, OK. It is a congregation of 1300 members, 4 worship services per Sunday plus a weekly Wednesday night service. There is a grade school pre- school thru 6th grade. It is multiple staff ministry and the supervising pastor also gained an associate pastor in the evening call service. That pastor, Barry Hanke, is also the Oklahoma District President & the DP office is out of the church offices. So, Christopher will have a little closer look at the office of the DP than most vicars usually see.

Also, Pastor Hanke graduated from Concordia Seminary, Springfield in 1973—3 yrs. after Pastor Troxel. Pastor Hanke personally gave Christopher the call documents in the service. He met Larry as we were all leaving the sanctuary and the two reconnected after many yrs. What a small world! The assignment starts July 7. They will relocate that week before. They are pretty excited about the whole thing. Our thanks to the congregation for all the ongoing prayers & support! ORLC has given the family. It means more than we can ever express. Donna Troxel

Board of Directors Review

At its March 2014 meeting, the CID Board of Directors heard a presentation from Rev. Tom Phillips on work in the District among the deaf. CID is one of only four districts directly supporting deaf ministry, and it continues to receive growing emphasis within the District.

In other business:

- Mr. Dave Rohe reported that every mortgage held by CID CEF was eligible for a mortgage interest rebate grant (for mortgages not more than 30 days past due).
- The Evangelism Commission reports that the new Evangelism Handbook is available on the District's website as a PowerPoint presentation so that congregations may have easy access to it.
- Board adopted a Marriage Policy to help protect district staff, missionaries-at-large, campus pastors, and all others called by the District from any legal action arising under recent changes in the marriage laws of Illinois.
- Congregational constitution changes for Holy Cross – Moline were accepted.
- Discussion continues between the (CID) Congregational Constitution and District Handbook Committee and the (Synodical) Commission on Constitutional Matters to address updates to the District's Articles of Incorporation that stem from recent Synodical convention action.
- A bequest was received by the District. Board voted, per its usual practice, to immediately forward 10% to the Synod in support of national/international mission efforts.

The afternoon was spent in dialogue with Synodical 1st Vice President Herb Mueller and Regional Vice President Daniel Preus as they conducted their official visit. Such visits were emphasized at the last Synodical Convention.

Next BOD meeting will be May 27.

Reading your child's mind

New babies rely on adults for their physical survival, but as they grow they need even more than that. Children also depend on their parents for their emotional and physical development.

Consequently, being a good parent means helping your children understand themselves, their emotions, their thoughts and the connection between themselves and the world around them. Just as a good parent must read the child's physical needs (for food, naps, etc.), the parent must also read the child's emotional and intellectual needs.

Meeting a child's emotional needs is critical if the child is to become a stable adult. According to psychoanalyst Erik Erikson, children must first learn to trust the adults in their lives to provide nurturing and comfort. Erikson also noted that children need to deal with shame and doubt. Parents must know when their children are experiencing these feelings and help them restore a feeling of "I'm ok." If a child establishes a sense of trust and is not overwhelmed with shame, Erikson believes a child will have hope and motivation to deal properly with the ongoing stages of development.

As they become young adults, children must deal with feelings like guilt and inferiority that come up around the issues of identity and intimacy. When we feel guilty or that we are not "good enough," these negative feelings can undermine our sense of autonomy, the feeling that "I can do it."

When children get frustrated and angry because they cannot do something, parents must understand that they are feeling a sense of failure and then intervene to help them accomplish the task or to deal with the reality of occasional failure.

Once parents have an idea of what is going on in their children's minds, they can help them find words for their feelings. This task is very important because it is through language that people can have a stable sense of identity. Language helps people move beyond confusion and deal with their worlds more confidently.

You and your family do not have to struggle alone. LCFS counselors help families generate hope and cope with life's challenges.
