To the people of God at Our Redeemer,

As you may know, Evelyn McDowell is retiring from her position as church secretary, and Gretchen Wolfmeyer is now given the task of managing the office work at the church.

When I arrived here five years ago, Evelyn was extremely helpful as I worked to get to know the new flock I was shepherding. As my tradition is to make contact with everyone on or around their birthday, that first year, she would give me a brief rundown on the names for the week. She helped me to make family connections, or know who sang in the choir, or who was suffering from illness, or who had suffered a loss in their family, etc.

Her experience and lifetime in the family of Our Redeemer gave me invaluable insight into the lives of the people. Those names on the roster of birthdays for the month were no longer just names, those names had family, those names had history, those names were children of God to whom I would be preaching the Gospel.

I also am thankful for her understanding of the worship life of Our Redeemer. We always had candles for Christmas Eve. We always had palms for Palm Sunday. She always knew when I needed a little reminder to plan ahead for future events.

I am thankful for Evelyn's knowledge and skills that made her the right person to help me transition into my pastoral duties. On behalf of myself and the members of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, we thank you Evelyn and wish you the Lord's blessings in your future.

In Christ,

Pastor Eden

Quilting

DO YOU LIKE TO SEW? THEN THIS IS THE PROJECT FOR YOU! The sewing ladies could use your help in assembling quilt tops for LWR Mission Quilts. Kits have been assembled and are waiting for you to pick up from the basket placed on a table by the basement stairs. Included in the kit are 48 squares of 11" x 11" material. Match the squares to your desire and sew them together with a 1/2" seam. This makes a 60" x 80" quilt top. Return the top to our sewing ladies and we will finish it with a lining and a back. Then the quilts are sent to Lutheran World Relief. Thank you very much for your help with our LWR Mission Quilt project. Please call Norma Begeman at 221-9585 or Bernice Jording at 223-2014, if you need help or more info.

Senior Choir rehearsals will resume on Tues., Sept. 2, at 7:00 p.m. All voices are needed and welcomed--no auditions required.

Youth Choir rehearsals will resume on Wed., Sept. 3, at 4:00 p.m. Youth from 3rd to 12th grade are welcome and encouraged to participate. The only requirement is the ability to read. Rehearsals last 45 minutes; the group sings at least one Sun. a month.

LWML

Our August 7th meeting was hosted by Mary Morse and Rosie Meyer with tasty desserts and some bling for the table! Thank you, girls, for your service...many thanks for all the members who take time to be a hostess each month!

Unfinished business...we discussed our involvement with St. John's Food and Clothing pantry and how we can still help out where needed.

New business discussed...the date was announced for the Quincy Zone Fall Rally on Tues., Sept. 16th at Macomb, our postponing of the movie night until 2015, implementing a committee to plan our LWML Sunday (Oct. 5th) events and details were shared about our September carry-in meeting at Reva's, hosted by her and Sandy Callahan.

If you are thinking you might like to be a part of the mission of LWML; we invite you check us out at our next monthly meeting on Thursday, Sept. 4th. It is our annual carry-in. Call Reva or Sandy to let them know you would like to attend. Eating begins at 6pm. The more the merrier!

We are so blessed with the many gifts, talents and resources of all the ladies and we welcome you to join us in "serving the Lord with gladness"!

To find out more about our LWML group, please contact any LWML member, Michele Clevenger at 217-224-7881 or mlc.lwml@comcast.net or check out the LWML on the World Wide Web at www.lwml.org.

LWML Mission Grant Bulletin Byte

WORSHIP FOR SHUT-INS -

$80,000 Grant

Each week, many senior citizens struggle with health issues that confine them to their homes, or rooms, and keeps them from experiencing an essential element of Christian spiritual wellness, namely, worship with fellow believers at their local church or retirement center chapel. Worship for Shut-Ins, a DVD program produced by Lutheran Ministries Media (LMM), can be made available to the spiritual leaders at these facilities, who in turn, can broadcast the program over an "in-house" closed circuit system; copy each program and deliver them to the residents for their own convenient viewing; or facilitate their own weekly group viewing event in a specified area of their facility. For more information on this and other 2013-2015 LWML Mission Grants, go to www.lwml.org and scroll down on the "Mission Grants" drop-down menu.

Authoritative parenting

One of the most challenging issues facing parents today is how to raise responsible, well-adjusted children in a world of conflicting messages and value systems.

The style of parenting children encounter greatly influences their outlook not only on themselves and their families, but also the world. Parenting can be broadly classified into four general styles: authoritative (democratic), authoritarian (dictatorial), permissive and negligent.

These styles are based on two basic characteristics: the ability to be responsive to a child's needs and feelings (responsiveness) and the ability to set reasonable boundaries and limits (demandingness).

Authoritative parents tend to perform tasks with their children that are high in both responsiveness and demandingness. Research has demonstrated that these children tend to do better in school, demonstrate respect for others, possess higher levels of self-esteem, are able to take responsibility for their actions and display higher levels of self-discipline.

The following are characteristics of authoritative parents:

- Able to establish and enforce limits and boundaries and adjust them when necessary.
- Listen to and repeat back children's thoughts and feelings without judging them (active listening).
- Establish consistency in family life.
- Are warm and supportive of their children's needs and interests.
- Promote and demonstrate mutual support.

Remember, it is important not to look at isolated, specific behaviors when trying to understand one's parenting style. It reflects a general attitude and consistent pattern of behavior over a period of time.

Family Services of Illinois

Dear Saints and Supporters of Lutheran Schools,

What new challenge have you taken up in your lifetime? What is something you think is worth sacrificing for?

October 11, at the age of 61, I, Pastor Rempfer, will be running my first half-marathon. It will be the Great River Road Run from Hamilton, Illinois to Nauvoo, Illinois.

- Let’s see if you can guess why I’m doing this?
A. It is so much fun B. I couldn’t think of anything better to do C. I needed to lose weight
D. I’m dedicated to Lutheran Schools

The correct answer is D. I have always said that I feel abundantly blessed that my parents were willing to drive twelve miles one way so that we could attend a Lutheran School. They didn’t have to say it; I knew it was because my spiritual life was the most important part of life.

I have been privileged the last 24 years of ministry to serve where there has been a Lutheran School. I’m sold on Lutheran Schools. I’m 100% behind Lutheran Schools. I see Lutheran Schools as purposeful, worthwhile, meaningful, valuable and worth investing my life in.

One article indicated that if half-marathons were easy everyone would be doing them. I’m training hard for one reason: I want to do all that I can to support St. James Lutheran School, in Quincy, Illinois.

I’m asking anyone who supports Lutheran Education to consider sending a donation. If you want to pledge per mile you can give a gift of $13 or $26 or $39 or $130 or whatever you choose. Any size gift would be welcome. All checks should be made out to St. James Lutheran School. You can decide whether you wish to direct them to our account with the LC-MS Foundation that is restricted (which means we can only use the interest) or to our unrestricted account at the LC-MS Foundation which can be used for whatever purposes deemed appropriate by the school/endowment committee.

My children and your children can and will experience many different things in their lifetime. I know of only one thing that will not be taken from them. Please consider giving a gift to help strengthen and sustain the ministry of St. James Lutheran School in Quincy.

Recognizing that our mission isn’t just local, ten percent of all funds raised will be sent to Mission Central to be divided among three missionaries we support: Dave Mahsman in Eurasia, Micah Wildauer in Togo and Steven Schumacher in Ghana.

In Christ,
Pastor Rempfer
